

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REVIEW REPORT

To the Board of Directors,
Mercy Center Foundation (U.S.A),
P. O. Box 647, Laurel Maryland.

We have reviewed the accompanying financial statements of Mercy Center Foundation (a nonprofit organization), which comprise of the statement of financial position as of July 31st 2015 and 2016, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the years then ended July 31st 2016.

A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

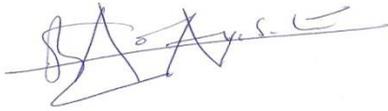

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

Accountant's Conclusion

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTE 1—NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Activities

An organization dedicated to meet the needs of the people in the Lare region of Kenya. Lare is a rural community in the rift valley region of Kenya with scarce resources to public infrastructure. The mission of (MCF USA) is to alleviate poverty within the region through self sustaining growth development projects. It is committed to providing humanitarian assistance to affordable clean water such as wells and bore holes, health care through the establishment of clinics, education with the development of a civic centre, and financial assistance through micro-finance initiatives.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Property and Equipment

The Organization capitalizes property and equipment over $1,000. Lesser amounts are expensed. Purchased property and equipment is capitalized at cost. Donations of property and equipment are recorded as contributions at their estimated fair value. Such donations are reported as unrestricted contributions unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, the Organization reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service. Property and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives ranging from five to thirty years.

Contributions

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted net assets depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions.

Income Taxes

The Organization is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and classified by the Internal Revenue Service as other than a private foundation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Evaluation of Subsequent Events

The Organization has evaluated subsequent events through August 22, 2016, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.
